

PRESS RELEASE

Montana native, Los Angeles local, Heidi Swan recently received the honor of being named Winner of the #1 rated song by Song of the Year (<http://www.songoftheyear.com>) songwriting contest. Song of the Year is an international songwriting contest supporting VH-1's Save The Music Foundation. The Song of the Year judges are some of the biggest names in music including many Grammy Award winners.

Song of the Year is excited to recognize Heidi Swan for her exceptional songwriting ability for the song "Take It All". Heidi Swan competed against songwriters from all over the world for this honor. When asked what inspired the song, Heidi Swan commented that "Life makes the music!" "Life makes you realize it's all about your soul, you find the blessings in the ups & downs realizing you can't take my soul!"

Currently Heidi Swan is concentrating on her music career performing venues in LA and touring as a 'Musical Guest' with The Comedy Slams & Jams Tour with K. Michael Moore Productions featuring HBO, Comedy Central, Showtime and Mad TV comics, while hoping to "continue performing but writing and producing is what I love!" "My dream is always my family happiness above all, to be able to get a publishing deal, and continue creating real music that touches the soul of the world!"
